*Burnet County Republican
Women, President*

Dear BCRW,

Just wow. That was the greatest GOP Convention. Ever.

It was a brilliantly planned and executed communication of President Trump's results and agenda to Make America Great Again. It came right into our living rooms and felt personal, even though it was reaching a massive national and international audience.

Why did it feel personal? Because our Republican beliefs were repeatedly confirmed. We are on the right-side and our efforts will mean something to future generations. Whether you make calls, place signs, block walk, write letters, volunteer at headquarters, work booths, make masks or any other campaign activity, YOU are helping place America in the hands of a bold and courageous leader who will fight to put Americans and America first.

And how about those speakers? Over and over, speakers described how they experienced positive IMPACTS from the President's policies. The personal compassion of our President was repeatedly revealed and praised. Yes, Promises Made, Promises Kept. But those promises are proving to impact/help/lift-up/propel American citizens from all walks of life, to reach their potential and goals.

And how did the Democrats fare? The truth was told. Their radical manifesto was revealed and the current and future consequences of their policies were presented. The divide between the two parties was shown to be vast. The choice was made clear: YOU MUST VOTE REPUBLICAN PARTY CANDIDATES if you favor law and order, economic prosperity, personal freedom, religious freedom, legal immigration, right to life, right to bear arms and all the other common sense ideals that make America the greatest country in the world.

Just Wow. I am fired-up for America and I am fired-up to work with BCRW to re-elect President Donald J. Trump and all our Republican candidates.

See you soon!

Kay

P.S. Why not sign-up to work a shift at our Burnet County Republican Headquarters? Just give Dottie Stueckroth a call at 830-613-9474.
