Hi Everyone,

Wow, our April meeting was fantastic with Pattie Barrett from True the Vote! Her data on Election Integrity was compelling. I am watching for when the TTV app to help with cleaning up voter rolls goes online and will let you know so we can all assist in this very important task. Thank you Gail Teegarden for all of our great guest speakers. It's a big job!

I am so proud of all of our members who have been engaged in having their voice heard on Redistricting, Election Integrity and our other Legislative Priorities. Thank you for responding so quickly when Political Action Alerts go out.

Our Wine Wednesday got "not so rained out" but look forward to getting together with everyone on May 26. Another fun opportunity to bring a friend!

Our May meeting will feature Robbie Hull, TFRW Vice President of Legislation. Her presentation will reinforce our efforts being made during session.

Be on the lookout for guests! We will be hosting our 3 scholarship winners and their parents. We always want to make sure when someone wants into our meeting they feel welcome and want to come back. And you all do an outstanding genuine job at that!! We appreciate Carolyn Alexander and her Hospitality Team for making our meetings fun and inviting!

June will bring back our "Summer Socials" where conservatives casually gather to visit, enjoy a glass of wine, listen to live music and this year, we are adding a speaker. The perfect event to bring a friend. And of course, spouses are always welcome

Our second annual "Charcuterie Board" contest invites each of you to enter. Bring your board full of tasty treats. Boards are judged on taste and presentation and will be on full display to view and eat at our June Summer Social.

Mark your calendar for the 2nd Thursday night of June, July and August Summer Socials. They take place at 101 Falling Creek Cove in Marble Falls. Bring your favorite adult beverage and a foldup chair (just in case).

Hope many of you will consider attending the TFRW Convention in Round Rock in October. Early Bird Registration starts today and ends June 31st. Take advantage of the affordable registration fee during this time. Convention will be fun and informative and I hear that Kalahari is pretty FAB!

See you at the May 13th meeting and bring a friend with you!

Speaker: Robbie Hull,
TFRW VP, Legislation

Robbi is a retired civil appellate/litigation attorney. She practiced law at Vinson & Elkins in Austin as an associate and then as a partner from 1992-2007. She also clerked at the Texas Supreme Court for Nathan Hecht 1991-92 after graduating from University of Texas School of Law with high honors. It was her experience at the Texas Supreme Court that led to her involvement in politics.

Since 1992, she has volunteered many hours of her time working for the election of Republican candidates including electioneering for Justice Nathan Hecht, Justice then Governor then Senator John Cornyn, and Justice then Attorney General then Governor Abbott.

Robbi was elected as TFRW VP Legislation at the 2019 Convention to serve for the 2020-2021 term. Her experience in the legal field, particularly in legal research, writing, and communication, provides her with a unique perspective and ability to work with the TFRW Board and with the membership on matters relating to the legislative process.

Robbi has two beautiful daughters and is surrounded by a large and loving family. She enjoys the outdoors and looks forward to the time when she can begin to travel again!

April Meeting Minutes

Burnet County Republican Women PAC Minutes of General Meeting – April 8, 2021 Sylvester H. Reed Memorial Building – Burnet, Texas

Welcome, Call to Order, and Opening Ceremonies: President Mary Jane Avery welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order at 11:30 a.m. A lunch of green salad, macaroni & cheese, beans, and barbecued chicken along with brownies was served. Judy Salvaggio gave the invocation, and Deborah Smith led the pledges to the American and Texas flags.

Introductions: President Mary Jane introduced local elected officials, candidates, and guests.

Membership Report: Membership Chair Janice Estill reported that we have 117 members and 28 associate members. New members were introduced.

Approval of Minutes: The January minutes were published in the newsletter. There were no corrections. They stand approved as published.

Campaign Activities: Campaign Activities Chair Mary Jane Avery reported that she will be sending in an activities report this week. She urged members to contact legislators concerning election integrity – Political Activity Alert for HB6. There is a town hall meeting for Terry Wilson in Liberty Hill tonight. All are invited. The Strike Force is planning a trip to Arlington April 16 -17 to campaign for a seat vacated due to the death of the U.S Representative for that area.

Scholarship Report: Wanda Kauffman thanked committee members Marianne Berry and Jane Marie Hurst for their work on this committee. Three students have been chosen to receive a scholarship: Haley McHam from Burnet, Augustus Henry from Faith Academy, and Hannah Jordan from Marble Falls. They along with their parents will attend the May meeting and will read their essays.

Program: Gail Teegarden introduced Pattie Barrett from True The Vote. Pattie gave a very compelling explanation of voter fraud and manipulation and ballot “trafficking” throughout the country. She gave information on Catherine Engelbrecht, Founder of True the Vote, and how she founded the organization in Harris County. Georgia is leading the charge of election integrity and reform. Many other states are getting on board, including Texas. There will be a new TTV app where we can get access to voter rolls in our county. We can get reports of voters who have moved and their new address. This will help clean up our records for the next election.

Announcements:

- Burnet County Republican Chair Kara Chasteen reminded us about following the state bills. It made a difference in HB6. Look for upcoming vaccine legislation. Emailing congressmen is the best way to communicate. There will be a candidate training May 15th at the Extension Building. Rafael Cruz will be our guest at the Republican picnic in September.
- Burnet County Republican Club President Londa Chandler announced that the next meeting of the club will be May 4th at 6:30 at the Trailblazer Grill in Burnet. A member of the Border Patrol will be the speaker.
- BCRW Wine Wednesday, April 28, 2021 at Flat Creek Enoteca, Marble Falls at 6:00 p.m.
- Our next meeting will be May 13th, and the speaker will be Robbie Hull of TFRW.
- New members were reminded to come to the front to have their picture taken.
- Summer Socials will begin June 10th with a Charcuterie Board Contest.
- Thank you to BCRW Vice President Carolyn Alexander, her Hospitality Committee, and Kevin for our delicious lunch.

Door Prize: Pat Bentley won a door prize for a facial.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:05 with the singing of “God Bless America.”

Respectfully submitted,

Darlene Hargett

Future of the Republican Party

Fellow Conservatives, as an 18-year-old high school graduate I am deeply concerned about where our country is headed. The Republican party is losing its youth to more liberal ideas and leaders. In fact, I can not tell you how many times Bernie Sanders volunteers reached out to me by text to ask me to vote for free education. In my opinion, we must reach young people wherever we can and teach them about the lies that are being spread which will only enable a more socialistic society and take their freedoms away. I suggest the Republican party hit every church in America with a well laid out video that gives specific bullet points about what will happen to our nation once we decrease our military, defund police, increase taxes for the middle class, continue to let undocumented illegals through our borders, and crash our private medical system. It is easy to tell people you will give them free things. Thus, the burden is on us to show how those freebies will create enslavement. Furthermore, the Republican party has lost many people throughout the years to a society that runs from judgment. Our Christian values in the Republican party are what makes us great, but we have lost the LGBTQ community and many women who align with their emotions instead of being critical thinkers. We need a platform that says God loves everyone and will draw all his children to Him who believe in His son Jesus Christ. The hell they fear and have run from leads them into a party that promises to take care of them but will instead create a hell on earth where we will no longer have freedom of speech or freedom of religion. Let us create clubs on the school campuses that kids can attend for greater scholarship opportunities and teach them about past empires that have fallen because they went the way of socialism and communism. Explain to students how Hitler taught the youth to turn on their own parents and let them see the devastation of Nazi Germany. There are people alive who tell this story and are very inspirational to watch. Show them the history of the witch trials where more than three million women were persecuted and died because they were at the mercy of a government that was granted greater power than the people. "He who gives his freedom for safety gets none of them." (Thomas Jefferson) Lastly, Republican representatives need to get out in the community and meet their constituents to discover how they can best represent their wants and needs. To some degree this is how Stacey Abrams overturned Georgia to elect Democrats in a historically conservative state. I pray for my country that God would reach those who are lost and show us that we must work hard to earn our Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness!

Hannah Jordan

Oftentimes, in our current political climate it can feel like democrats are the vast majority, but in reality that is not the case. A large portion of the American population is republican, but the Republican Party is not always as vocal as the Democratic Party. In order to fix this I believe Republicans must step up to political issues voluntarily and communicate beliefs in a more positive and emotional way than we often do now. I believe the Republican Party can more clearly and effectively represent the views of its people by bringing subjects to the conversation rather than mainly responding to battles Democrats started. Too often I see Republicans' ideas get misrepresented because a prepared Democrat presented a debate that a Republican did not have a previously planned argument for. When this happens, people think those who won the debates represent most people, but in reality they were simply more prepared. The way each party presents arguments is also important. Democrats tend to base their platforms on the emotions of their audience, while Republicans tend to lean more on factual arguments. This may seem logical for Republicans to do, but support is lost because Democrats won someone's heart in the moment before Republicans could reach their head. A painful example of this is the ongoing debate of abortion. A Democrat may tell a heart wrenching story about a girl who "needed" an abortion, and right after a Republican may talk about how scientifically human life starts at conception. While the Republican had a stronger argument, people will walk away remembering the Democrat's story. Knowing how to present arguments is just as important as bringing them up in the first place. Studies have shown that people tend to agree with things more easily than disagreeing. Many liberals debate using this fact by saying things such as "Don't you agree that women should have control over their bodies?” to pressure people into agreeing with their point. Basing an argument solely on the fact that someone else is wrong makes it difficult for people to be on board, even if they agree. Instead, Republicans should utilize this fact and argue things in a positive light by saying what is right instead of saying the opposite is wrong. Being vocal in a positive way will help Republicans to reach the younger population, which must be a top priority if we want Republican voices to be heard. Young people know their way around social platforms and know how to make their voices heard in this modern era better than anyone. Gaining their valuable input now will help the Republican party to be more vocal, and using the tactics discussed above will convey the Republican platform an approachable way. Fortunately, changing the way a platform is presented does not change the thoughts behind it at all. It only changes the perception of the ideas for those outside the platform. Republicans must work to be more vocal about important issues and discuss them from a positive viewpoint. If we are against a certain action we must say so by stating that we are for the opposite action. This will help to make Republican voices heard and accepted without sacrificing the integrity of the Republican platform.

Haley McHam

The Republican party was founded on the ideas of liberty, equality, and inalienable rights and still holds these in place as part of their central values. In addition to this, they believe that states' rights should be supported against the federal government. In order to more clearly represent the views of the majority of the people, without compromising their basic platform, the Republican party should present their ideas and values in a way that is easily perceived by the majority of people and use group-based appeal.

There have been many studies that have provided sufficient evidence supporting the claim that people rely on identifying factors and social categorization when they are making important decisions in politics. This means that people are more likely to be drawn towards one party rather than another because of the group-based appeal that has been used. In some aspects, politics is similar to the social lives of people; if they like more things than they do not about a person, they will continue to be around that person. If the Republican party would like to more clearly represent the views of the majority of people, they will need to make their goals and ideas, as well as the things they do not stand for, known by the people.

Although the Republican party may not represent every single one of the beliefs of the majority of people, they should clearly indicate the beliefs that do match up with those of the majority and put time and effort into advocating for their party using those ideas. People are typically persuaded in a specific political direction based on what they believe will be beneficial to themselves and others, so if you are able to find out what those beliefs are and represent them, the Republican party will be able to more clearly and effectively represent the views of the majority of people without compromising its basic platform. With this method, the Republican party is able to show the people what they stand for and make it known that they want what is best for the United States of America.

Some views on specific topics, such as concerns for public schools and unaffordable healthcare are shared between the Republican and Democratic parties. These are both ideas of group-based appeal that they could use to their advantage to help gain the attention of the majority of the people. If one of these views is a deciding factor for a voter and the Republican party advocated for it more than other parties, they would be able to gain voters simply by advocating for specific ideas without compromising their own beliefs and platform.

While it may be much easier said than done, the Republican party shares many views of the majority, and they should make those the ones that they put first when campaigning in order to appeal to the majority. By using group-based appeal and advocating for views they share with the majority they would be able to more clearly show that they do represent the views of the majority of people, and they would not have to compromise the platform and ideas they have had and upheld for many, many years.

GAIL TEEGARDEN

As a recent member of BCRW (or any Republican organization), I was impressed by the energy and commitment of Gail Teegarden while block walking for President Trump this past fall. She lived in very small rural Texas towns growing up, then got married and had three children. While working full time, she decided to go Odessa College attending classes during lunch hour and evenings. She spent 34 years with the U.S. Postal Service with the last 30 years in management.

When asked, she says she has ALWAYS been a conservative. The list of her TRFW and Republican Party involvement is long. She is currently SD24 TFRW District Director. Gail feels she can be a voice and make a difference through her actions to keep the Party unified. "Our US Government is torn apart by greed and power right now. We need honest, truthful leadership in all branches. I love my country and I feel those in power only love themselves and power. We all should want unity and each and every one resolve to do their very best to make a difference locally." I couldn't have said it better. What a role model for us all.

EXTENDED APPLICATION DEADLINE TO MAY 31ST

Due to recent increase in interest in the program, RPT has extended the deadline for applications to May 31st!

Dear TFRW Members,

We are excited to introduce the RPT's first ever Texas Youth Leadership Summit to be held at the Texas Tech University Center in Junction. Please help us get the word out to young adults you believe will take the leadership principles learned at the summit back to their communities to share with their peers.

With the Kimble County Republican Party and the Leadership Institute, we are inviting Texas youth to this summit specifically designed to teach conservative principles and serve as a foundation for high school and college club development across the state. The leadership curriculum is designed to be college level but within the grasp of enthusiastic high school students. Students will be treated to a canoeing experience with some biology education on the Llano River, as well as some astronomy fun at night.

The goal of the camp is to help young adults better understand conservative values and capitalism and to prepare them for leadership roles in their communities. Attached you will find a flyer, letter for potential candidates with QR code for the application process and web link. The cost of the camp is only $150 thanks to the generous help of Kimble County Republican Party. It is recommended that each attendee have some "skin in the game" so if you decide to help students with fees, we ask that you allow them to cover a minimum of $50. We believe this will help us get the best candidates. There are 96 spaces available and attendees from a cross section of the state and from diversified age groups and backgrounds will be chosen.

Download Letter to Student

STUDENT PROCESS

Step 1: Complete & submit online application by May 31st. The selection committee will then meet. Once a student has been selected to attend, they will receive an email with a registration link.

Step 2: Complete online registration and pay the $150 fee. Again, we are encouraging county parties and clubs to help students if possible, but to let students pay at least part of their fees. How much your students will pay is totally up to your organization. It is absolutely fine if the student pays the full $150 which is a great price and covers all room, board and activities.

SAVE THE DATE!

TFRW 2021 Biennial Convention
OCTOBER 13-16, 2021
Kalahari Resorts

3001 Kalahari Blvd, Round Rock, TX 78665,

Early Bird Registration for TFRW convention will start May 1st thru June 30th!

Attention BCRW Primary Active Members:

Are you interested in attending Convention as a Delegate or Alternate? Delegate and Alternate Strength is determined by Primary Membership total. We presently have 120 Members. Allowing us 12 Delegates and 12 Alternates...this strength may change if members are recruited over the summer months.

Did you know our club is hosting a "Meet & Greet" for the elected officials at the convention? We are hoping you will be a delegate/alternate to help with the event.

This convention promises to be fun, lots of "hands on" workshops to make us better conservative leaders and some very special guest speakers.
